Name Here

Date of Birth - Date of Death

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Name Here

Date of Birth - Date of Death

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Name Here

Date of Birth - Date of Death

Gino's was born in the small Italian city of St.George. He was the youngest of three children (Guieppina, Berto) born to Francesco and Rosa (Pimpinelli) Rossetti. Gino spent most of his upbringing in Orciano, Italy until 1956 when he packed 1 bag and ventured off to Canada. He got his first job as a painter and spent his lives work blessing many homes and the Toronto airport with his painting skills. In Sept 1962, at 28 years of age, Gino returned to Italy in search of his wife. He found the love of his life Tina (Lucertini) instantly and a few months later they were married on November 18th, 1962 in Fano, Italy. They returned to Canada to build a family and life together. Their life centered around their two sons, Fabio (Karen Schmalz) and Mirco (Tracy Muir) and his 3 grandchildren Olivia, Joshua, and Selena. Gino enjoyed many hobbies including bowling, bocce, gardening and watching the Ferrari car races. Gino was a faithful husband, beloved babbo, outstanding Nonno, supportive father-in-law, brother, uncle, friend and all round remarkable man. He was a principled man who lived for his family, fittingly enscribed on his tombstone reads "Kind and good he lived his life for his family". A funeral mass will take place at St. Roch's Church (2889 Islington Ave) on Thursday Sept 1, 2005 at 10 a.m. Interment to follow at Glendale Memorial Gardens. In lieu of fl owers, donations can be made to the Canadian Cancer Society.

FUNERAL HOME
LOGO

Name Here

Date of Birth - Date of Death

Gino's was born in the small Italian city of St.George. He was the youngest of three children (Guieppina, Berto) born to Francesco and Rosa (Pimpinelli) Rossetti. Gino spent most of his upbringing in Orciano, Italy until 1956 when he packed 1 bag and ventured off to Canada. He got his first job as a painter and spent his lives work blessing many homes and the Toronto airport with his painting skills. In Sept 1962, at 28 years of age, Gino returned to Italy in search of his wife. He found the love of his life Tina (Lucertini) instantly and a few months later they were married on November 18th, 1962 in Fano, Italy. They returned to Canada to build a family and life together. Their life centered around their two sons, Fabio (Karen Schmalz) and Mirco (Tracy Muir) and his 3 grandchildren Olivia, Joshua, and Selena. Gino enjoyed many hobbies including bowling, bocce, gardening and watching the Ferrari car races. Gino was a faithful husband, beloved babbo, outstanding Nonno, supportive father-in-law, brother, uncle, friend and all round remarkable man. He was a principled man who lived for his family, fittingly enscribed on his tombstone reads "Kind and good he lived his life for his family". A funeral mass will take place at St. Roch's Church (2889 Islington Ave) on Thursday Sept 1, 2005 at 10 a.m. Interment to follow at Glendale Memorial Gardens. In lieu of fl owers, donations can be made to the Canadian Cancer Society.

FUNERAL HOME
LOGO